Group Life Insurance Election to Continue to Age 75 Provisions and Instructions

The retiree is responsible for the below information and for reviewing the election to continue to age 75 provisions in the Group Life Insurance Booklet which can be found at www.plannera.ca/benefits.

- Coverage under the Group Life Insurance Plan must be in effect at age 65 in order to be eligible to continue coverage to age 75.
- Coverage under this election to continue provision may continue until the end of the month in which the retiree has his/her 75th birthday.
- A retiree may terminate his/her coverage by giving one months written notice to the Public Employees Benefits Agency.
- A Designation of Beneficiary form must be completed and attached to this form.
- Designation may be changed at any time by completing a new Designation of Beneficiary form.
