

CANADA LIFE BENEFITS COVERAGE FOR FIRST NATION AND INUIT EMPLOYEES

Canada Life coverage supports all eligible employees and their dependents, including First Nation and Inuit employees with pre-existing Non-Insured Health Benefits (NIHB) coverage.

What You Need to Know: When you go to a medical appointment, please remember to bring your Saskatchewan Health, Canada Life, and Certificate of Indian Status (if applicable) cards. This allows your provider to bill the Canada Life and NIHB program directly.

Payment Process: Canada Life will cover eligible costs first. If there's any remaining balance, NIHB will determine the eligible costs.

Everyone, including those considering changing providers, should always bring their Saskatchewan Health, Canada Life, and Certificate of Indian Status (if applicable) cards to ensure your coverage is processed smoothly and promptly.
