Your spouse is your beneficiary.

Intention

Before signing and returning this form, ensure that your beneficiary designation(s), together with your will, carry out your intent for the distribution of your death benefits.

Minors

Responsibility

It is your responsibility to ensure that the designations are up to date and reflect your intentions at all times. Changes in your marital or family status may indicate a need to update your beneficiaries.

The Judges of the Provincial Court Superannuation Plan is not responsible for the validity or effect of any designation made on this form.
